

I am the Executive Director of the South Carolina Bar. Any regulation which seeks to govern how I communicate with Bar member is excessive governmental interference in the operation of the association. My members will let me know how they do and don't want to receive information. The regulations published on July 25 should be withdrawn.